DO NOT MISS OUT!

OAEMS 2014 Summer Conference featuring on Saturday June 28, 2014:

Randolph Mantooth

Mr. Mantooth's portrayal of Firefighter/Paramedic Johnny Gage on NBC's groundbreaking series "Emergency!" left an indelible mark on the history of modern Fire Service and EMS. Of the millions who grew up watching the show in the 1970s, many discovered their life's calling and became firefighters, paramedics, ER nurses and ER doctors. Randy has stayed connected to firefighters and paramedics in the years since through lifelong friendships as well as through professional speaking engagements.

In recent years, Randy has embarked on a personal mission to reach out to firefighters to increase their awareness of on the job health risks, particularly those risks relating to exposure to CO --carbon monoxide -- a deadly gas that almost claimed his own life while shooting the show. OAEMS would like to acknowledge the Masimo Corporation for their generous sponsorship of Randolph Mantooth and Dr. Mike McEvoy.
